

JEREMY J.L. HILL

Consultant

Jeremy J.L. Hill is a consultant with Alpine International and in this role, he is engaged in enhancing the personal and professional development of people who have embarked on a new phase of their lives by relocating overseas.

Jeremy has led a most fascinating career path that has taken him to live and work in no fewer than six countries on three continents. Because of this wealth of experience, he acutely understands the barriers and wider cultural issues facing residents in a new environment. Through Alpine International, Jeremy is eager to share the benefit of his expertise, wisdom, and knowledge in the skills newcomers must acquire to lead successful and fulfilling lives in their new surroundings.

With a passion for adult training and development, Jeremy has earned numerous teaching, coaching and practitioner certificates and accreditations, enabling him to rapidly assess the needs of relocated clients and design a plan of acclimation to suit various and diverse needs. Jeremy's accreditations and certifications include the Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults (CELTA); a diploma in Coaching Excellence from the (UK) Institute of Training and Occupational Learning (ITOL); Certification in Group coaching and facilitation; and Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP).

Jeremy served as a British diplomat and has over 35 years of experience abroad. He has deep knowledge in industry sectors such as aerospace/automotive, fashion, food & beverage, construction and the life sciences. The majority of his career has been spent in Asia, particularly Indonesia, Korea, and Japan, thus has developed a love of Asian culture.
