

JOEL GLASSER

Senior Advisor

Joel Glasser is a finance and business specialist with Alpine International. In this role, he utilizes his decades of experience to help small to medium-sized businesses with financial and strategic planning.

Joel has lived and worked in Tokyo since 1985, when he came to Japan as a director and member of the Board of Ajinomoto General Foods, a joint venture company. His business career spans more than 40 years, both in the United States and Asia. He established multi-national conglomerate Kraft's current presence in the Japanese market, and later served as regional director and chief financial officer for the New Zealand Dairy Board.

Joel's experience inventory also includes several years as deputy executive director of the American Chamber of Commerce in Japan, and he has served on Boards both in Japan and in South Korea.

In addition to being a seasoned financial executive, Joel has extensive experience in strategic management and marketing, as well as corporate governance. A hands-on people manager, he is also a keen observer of people and cultural practices, making him an invaluable asset to Alpine International's training programs and international clients. His multi-faceted career afforded him an opportunity to live and work in South America, Europe, Asia, Australia and North America.

- M.B.A., Columbia University, USA
- B.S. in Finance, New York University, USA

Languages: English, Japanese

