President

Susan Piatek has 20 years of experience in leadership, team management, and corporate training in both government and commercial sectors. Her work includes developing organizational strategies as well as directing the development, implementation, and sustainability of global human resources initiatives, spanning front line employees to senior executives ranging from small businesses to Fortune 100 companies.

Susan established Alpine International, a consulting company focused on one of her passions; accelerating an organization's competitiveness in the global marketplace by helping teams work beyond borders. She has assembled a international team of seasoned professionals whose objective is to analyze and engineer innovative solutions that work to improve an organization's operations. Through her own experiences, she has identified a niche in which to specialize and that is to develop customized personnel acclimation processes for businesses worldwide.

Susan has a wealth of experience in a variety of human resources functions, including developing and implementing organizational needs analyses, training and implementing performance solutions, and developing organizational strategies to improve employee morale, as well as employee engagement and retention. She worked for companies such as The Walt Disney Company, Institute of Simulation and Training, and General Dynamics.
